

Charter Township of York
Washtenaw County
Resolution #2010-03

A RESOLUTION to approve and submit a funding grant application to the State of Michigan, Department of Natural Resources Trust Fund (MNRFT) for recreational development.

Whereas, the Charter Township of York has embarked on a program to provide parklands and recreational opportunities to its citizens, and;

Whereas, the Charter Township of York, in pursuance of this program, appointed a Parks and Recreation Committee in 2002 to develop short and long term plans for park development and land acquisition within the Township, and;

Whereas, the said Committee has completed the second five year master plan for park and recreation development within the Township and has garnered both citizen and Township approval for its content, and;

Whereas, the Parks and Recreation Committee has prepared a funding grant application to the Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund for the enhancement of a wildlife corridor, the purchase and installation of various pieces of playground equipment and the construction of a maintenance/storage building and access thereto to protect equipment and supplies necessary to support the further development and maintenance of York Township Parks, and;

Whereas, this grant application must be filed with the State of Michigan by April 1, 2010,

Now, therefore be it resolved, that the Charter Township of York Board of Trustees approves the grant request application to the MNRFT in the amount of $48,000.00 for the various scope items involved in the construction of said facilities specified in the MNRFT grant application during 2011 and 2012 in Sandra Richardson Park.

Be it further resolved that the Charter Township of York Board of Trustees, recognizing its commitment to improving Parks and Recreation opportunities in our community, approve and commit to local matching funds of $12,000.00, which are included within the total funding request as a local match percentage of 25%, and as documented in the official grant application.

This resolution having been voted on this date and passed by the majority vote of the Charter Township of York Board of Trustees on March 9, 2010 is attested by the signature and seal below.
